You can then add your favorite links and a search engine right from the startpage, and use any of the many themes you can download for free. - Custom Maxthon Start Page offers all of these features and more: ☑ Add your favorite links, a search engine, and a weather forecast right from the startpage ☑ New theme options include the ability to change the background color - Note: "Custom Maxthon Start Page" requires the plugin "Maxthon Startpage" to be installed and configured in order to have the "Custom Maxthon Start Page" function. - Download: Get ready for the first chapter of our new special series. From now on, a round of our biggest and most requested features are available for free. In our latest chapter we are going to focus on user-friendliness. As you know, Maxthon is a browser with a completely different user experience than other browsers we've developed. Maxthon is designed for the maximum comfort of its users. Therefore, it offers features that are hard or impossible to find in other browsers such as the ability to completely customize your UI, the stability of a single-window interface and your own startpage. One of our biggest problems, however, lies with our search engine. A Google-like search engine that is fast, easy to use, and has a user-friendly interface is really what everyone wants to be offered. Users find it hard to switch from one search engine to another, and the best thing we can do about this is to improve what our search engine can offer. In this chapter we're going to start with that. What are our new most popular features? ✓ New and improved scrollbar ✓ More search engine presets ✓ New and improved startpage ✓ Improved user-friendliness in general New and improved scrollbar: Maxthon has always had a very fast scrollbar, but in recent years it has become a bit slower than necessary. Especially when you

===== Hacker-Equals-Detective (Heed) A: The file you mention is an example program for a software we wrote called Heed, which is a customizable Windows search tool for unlimited searches via multiple engines, e.g. Bing, Yahoo, Yandex, Moz, DDG, etc. The screenshot of it that you posted looks like a demo for our search tool that is still in development. CARLTON star Patrick Cripps has backed the AFL to use two interchange pools for all 22 games of the 2019 season, if the rule change goes ahead. Cripps, 23, will return to the NEAFL after fracturing his ankle in the opening 10 minutes of last Sunday's win over Gold Coast, but he said it was not an issue the Blues should ignore. Find In the Game on Apple Podcasts, Google Podcasts or Spotify "It's a chance to tweak and see how it works out," Cripps told AFL.com.au. "It's not a worry. I'm a firm believer in the game being played on the field and not going by the board." Cripps said the format change could be great for fans, with the current 10-team competition making for a tight contest. "I think fans will get used to it as we go," Cripp
