If you have any information, please contact Lickville Police Department at (530) 967-5000." ... family. MISSING FROM A STORY. "Housing development in Sacramento's Uptown West End has been favored for years by Plastic Surgery Associates, the City of Sacramento's official plastics and cosmetic surgeons. The privately owned and operated center had been approved for a 30-unit apartment development in a neighborhood that, by comparison, has much lower density than many other neighborhoods around the city. But that will all be in the shade in coming months as the Planning Commission explores another move to reduce the density of the development. They would like to redo the project to allow for fewer units, which would lower the density by more than half. That idea is a controversial one within the commission. Plastic Surgery Associates plans to open the clinic next spring. It's already operating in temporary quarters located in a small building off

Kearney Road. The group hopes to open up permanent space in the building with support from the city
