Mr. Barroso must be genuinely perplexed. The Polish Prime Minister, Donald Tusk, has given him lots of support, but a scandal of this scale cannot but be surprising. The European Commission was supposed to make big news when it came to personnel change, not the burning of some compromising documents. It is true that Mrs. Malmström's tenure on the Commission seems likely to end up in the dustbin of history. But she had a bright career as a supporter for globalists. Among her shortlisted were the Dutch politician Frans Timmermans, the French politician Margrethe Vestager, the German politician Manfred Weber, the vice president of the European Parliament, Frans Timmermans, and the Italian politician Giuliano Amato. The British Conservative Party candidate, Julia Branson, has also emerged as a strong candidate. Mrs. Malmström showed little interest in party politics. She belonged to a party that merged in a post-communist Union of Christian and Democratic Parties. She was a member of the Green Party, which maintains links to environmental radicalism. More important, Mrs. Malmström represented the party of the Swedish Prime Minister Göran Persson, who made the name of Sweden into one of the strongest globally on behalf of "global governance." Mrs. Malmström had many English clients, and she could thus be a reassuring partner for English business interests. She had previously been a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and New York University's Center for European Policy Studies. She is also considered "one of Europe's most powerful lobbyists." She advocated the old-time globalist concept of "sovereign rights," meaning that no one should interfere in other countries' internal affairs — without even being asked. At the European Court of Justice, she supported the legal principle of "non-discrimination" and the right to legal aid. She supported the just-announced EU doctrine of "polarization" of the world into two blocs — one led by the United States and the other by Europe. One of the most outspoken opponents of Russian President Vladimir Putin in the European Parliament is the Liberal MEP Cecilia Wikström. Mrs. Malmström strongly criticized the Estonian President-elect, Toomas Hendrik Ilves, for his opposition to the attempted coup.

Q: How to connect an external USB keyboard in Ubuntu 18.04? I want to connect an external USB keyboard, but my laptop doesn't recognize it. In previous versions of Ubuntu I could connect the keyboard and it would show up under the System tab of the keyboard settings, but after upgrading to Ubuntu 18.04 (fresh install) the keyboard doesn't show in either Keyboard or System Settings in the settings app. I can see that my keyboard has an X-USB-Port identifier under /sys/bus/usb/devices, and when I run lsusb it reports that it is connected and identifies the device as a "HUAWEI Mobile USB Receiver" I have set the laptop to boot in "Legacy" mode, so I can see in the BIOS the HUAWEI Mobile USB Receiver device being set as a HID Keyboard. Is there a way to connect my external USB keyboard to Ubuntu 18.04? A: Kubuntu and Ubuntu 18.04 is not compatible with USB keyboards as a HID keyboard. Instead, the tools are now called libinput and udevadm. You can read more about setting up a USB keyboard in the server.
